

Job Description:

Cedar Springs church of Christ is seeking a pulpit minister primarily responsible for ministering to the members of Cedar Springs church and evangelistically reaching out to non-Christians in the community under the oversight of the eldership.

Qualifications and Expectations:

The Cedar Springs church Pulpit Minister must be a devoted, faithful member of the church of Christ. He must be an avid Bible student with excellent communication and relationship building skills. Our future preacher must be skilled and experienced at group teaching as well as one on one Bible study. The minister must be a team-player that works well under the oversight of the Elders, also working with the deacons and other members of the congregation.

Previous preaching experience preferred, but not required. Theology or related degree preferred, but not required.

Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to the following:

- Visit members, shut-ins, nursing homes, sick/discouraged members to provide encouragement, and visitors on a weekly basis
- He must be prepared to speak on special subjects as needed/requested.
- Minister must be available at all times for counsel of members who may have special needs.
- Position also will require set office hours.
- Preach and teach Bible classes as needed