

Rome church of Christ Youth Intern Job Description

Rome is located in extreme southern Ohio in a little city called Proctorville. We're 15 minutes from Huntington, WV and 30 minutes from Ashland, KY. We have 150 members with about 10 families in our middle-high school group and 15 families in our preschool-elementary group. While ministry and its needs range widely you'll be expected to keep office hours (varied depending on the events you're doing and needs that might arise) and dress professionally. We have a full time pulpit minister and a full time minister for our senior citizens. Our youth group is run by a committee made up of 4 families within our congregation including the pulpit minister.

The internship would be from May 26-August 4 with a salary of $300.00 a week. The congregation will provide housing in a separate house on one of our member's properties.

Job Description

1. Teaching Responsibilities
 - a. Teach Sunday and Wednesday youth classes
 - b. Preach 3x during the summer
 - c. Possibly work in our Bible Hour (children's church for 3rd grade and down)
 - d. Attend a weekly class with our pulpit minister on various ministry topics
2. Congregational Responsibilities
 - a. Visit older members/sick with preacher
 - b. Attend Bible studies with preacher as needed
 - c. Attend monthly young at heart lunches
 - d. There will be opportunities to serve in worship as well
 - e. Possibility of serving in various capacities depending on talents and interests
3. Youth Group
 - a. Plan, advertise and execute events with our youth committee
 - b. Plan devotionals (for both elementary and teens)
 - c. Camp, VBS, etc
 - d. Possibly a disaster relief trip
 - e. Come up with a couple events each month that are solely your ideas.